Dear Volunteer:

On behalf of the Province of Ontario, Host Province of the TORONTO 2015 Pan American/Parapan American Games, we would like to give you our heartfelt thanks for volunteering for the Games.

Volunteers like you were the ambassadors, backbone and heart of the Games. Because of you, Ontario experienced a transformative event that will have long-lasting impact on communities across the province. You can be justifiably proud of the part you played in showcasing the best of Ontario to the world.

The enclosed certificate recognizes the skills and experience you earned in making the Games such a resounding success. It is also a testament to your work ethic and your passion for making the world around you a better place. The skills and training that you gained by volunteering for these unforgettable Games will help you stand out in today's job market – and help make you an invaluable contributor to your community.

We encourage you to continue to seek out opportunities for volunteering. The knowledge and experience you gained at the Games will be a lasting benefit to you and your province, and will build on the legacy of hosting the largest multi-sport event in Canada's history.

You generously gave your time, talent and passion to make the TORONTO 2015 Games the best Pan American/Parapan American Games ever. Thank you.

Sincerely,
